An interview graphic titled "WOMEN IN THE WORKFORCE". It features a portrait of Sheikha Hanna, a young woman wearing a red and white checkered hijab, smiling. Below her photo is the text "Sheikha Hanna" and "Trainee - Digital Marketing Executive". A question is posed: "What advice would you give to other young women who are newbies in the workforce?". A quote follows: "As a young woman, the world can be pretty frustrating, especially when it comes to dealing with the workplace ideology of patriarchy. The challenge can be quite difficult to achieve, but it isn't impossible. If you want to show what you are capable of, you must not waste a minute of your time out of focus. Keep a strategic mindset and remind yourself of your goals every day with self-reflection. Negative feedback and criticism may come and go, but goals don't. If you ever feel overwhelmed by the workforce you are in, the worst thing you can do is give up, because the outcome of not giving up is worth the wait." A small blue "S" logo is in the bottom right corner.

MAGAZINE DESIGNS

As we stand at the crossroads of four decades of educational excellence, I am honoured to address you as the President of our esteemed Past Pupils Association at Harcourts International School. It is with a deep sense of pride and anticipation that I extend this invitation—a call to unity and celebration for each member of our cherished alumni community.

Our time at Harcourts wasn't just an educational journey; it was the forging of dreams, the nurturing of intellect, and the cultivation of an indomitable spirit. Today, I invite you to join me in not only acknowledging this significant milestone but also in channeling our collective influence towards shaping a vibrant future.

Our association isn't merely a reunion; it is a dynamic network of professionals, forward-thinking visionaries, and change-makers across diverse fields. Together, we wield a collective strength that has led to numerous successes. As we commemorate the 40th anniversary of our alma mater, let us reflect on the remarkable achievements and milestones that have shaped Harcourts into the institution we hold dear.

This is a moment to celebrate, an opportunity to express our gratitude for the foundation laid by our alma mater. Let's take pride in being part of an institution that has consistently upheld standards of excellence for four decades. It is not just a celebration of the past; it is a recognition of the enduring impact that Harcourts has had on generations of students.

In the months ahead, our association will play a crucial role in bridging the gap between the past and the present, fostering a sense of continuity and shared purpose. I implore each one of us to be an active participant, lending your voice and contributing your unique strengths to causes aligned with the ethos of Harcourts.

As we celebrate 40 years of educational excellence, let us be the architects of the future, carrying the torch of Harcourts with pride, passion, and purpose. Together, we can ensure that the legacy we inherit isn't just preserved but elevated to new heights.

THE BOOK NOOK
Book Reviews & Recommendations

Tress of the Emerald Sea by Brandon Sanderson

Synopsis:
Tress's only life on her island home in an emerald-green sea has been one of simple joys, such as collecting coins carried by sailors from foreign locations and solving puzzles. But when a mysterious hooded figure arrives and forces her to join him on an expedition to find a bride and calamity occurs, Tress ends up having to slip away aboard a ship and seek the Sorceress of the treacherous Midnight Sea. Meanwhile, the hooded figure has been banished and forged his own path across a sea where a single drop of water might bring death. Tress must now learn to survive in the treacherous ocean where pirates abound!

This book is based in the Cosmere universe, which is the intricate universe created by best-selling author Brandon Sanderson, writer of the Mistborn, The Way of Kings series. It is narrated by one of his characters, Hood. Though set in the same universe, the book can be read as a standalone and won't be confusing for first-time readers.

Review:
Tress of the Emerald Sea is a book that is rich in world-building and has a unique fantasy setting that sets it apart from the generic premise of other fantasy novels. To give you an idea, imagine 12 oceans that are made entirely of moon dust, with each moon dust ocean having its own unique flora and fauna. The story is told in a very interesting way, especially Tress, who is reliable yet unique in her own right. The writing is cohesive and straightforward, while the narrative voice can be described as a mix of innocence and maturity. The book is filled with lots of action, adventure, mystery-telling and dad jokes bring on a few quiet and occasional not-so-quiet giggles. While the story can be predictable, it manages to do it right, with the perfect amount of twists and turns. It's a very fast-paced novel revolving pirates, moon dust, and of course, tescops, making it a comfort read that can be enjoyed leisurely, perfect for the current rainy season.

Recommended for ages 13 and above.

A TRIP TO BATAGOLLADENIYA GALHINNA
7TH YEAR OF CRESCENT NURSERY SCHOOL

In a groundbreaking initiative to nurture young culinary talent, Harcourts International School recently hosted the much-anticipated 'Edinborough's Flavour Fusion' cooking competition on December 20, 2023. This unique event, organized by the School Development Front, marked a historic moment as the first-ever cooking competition of its kind in an international school setting.

The driving force behind this culinary extravaganza was none other than Edinborough, a renowned food brand that holds a prominent place in the Sri Lankan economy. Colombo Commodities, operating under the trusted brand of Anchor, joined hands as the spice sponsor, further adding flavour and excitement to the event.

The competition, held under the watchful eyes of international culinary expert Alan Palmer, unfolded with a sense of anticipation and enthusiasm. Alan Palmer, boasting six decades of culinary experience, serves as the international culinary judge in Asia and holds prestigious roles such as Vice Chairman of the World Chefs Historical Committee and Project.

EDINBOROUGH'S Flavour Fusion

Director of the Hotel Asia Exhibition Culinary Challenge in the Maldives, Mr. Rifaz Mohideen, Assistant Manager of Business Development at Edinborough Products, also graced the occasion, adding his expertise to culinary affairs.

The highlight of the competition was the Mystery Box Challenge, where participants, primarily students and their mothers, showcased their culinary prowess by creating delectable sandwiches and salads within a given time limit. The event not only encouraged creativity in the kitchen but also fostered a sense of camaraderie as students collaborated with their mothers in the pursuit of culinary excellence.

As the aroma of delicious creations filled the air, it was evident that this event had not only satisfied taste buds but had also sown the seeds for future culinary aspirations among the students of Harcourts International School.

123APPS.com - A versatile website that has many free tools for video, audio, PDF, and converters. The website is organised, safe, and user-friendly which makes it very convenient for handling multiple tasks without worrying about security or payments.

Speechify - Great for auditory learners, Speechify essentially converts books, textbooks, papers, etc., into an audio format. For students, or anyone basically, it helps stay on track with your reading while you're on the go. Whether your schedule is jam-packed or you just learn better with audio, Speechify is a great tool to have to keep you on course.

Shiken AI - Great for all types of learners and has several options on both paid and free subscriptions. Shiken AI helps make smart (and visually pleasing) notes, provides question sets and exams using highly effective study methods such as active recall, as well as providing games and quizzes to keep you engaged. Hence, it acts as a great partner when exam seasons are near and you need to get some quick revision done!
